Subject: Support for Your Second Term as FIA President

Dear Mr. Mohammed Ben Sulayem, FIA President,

On behalf of the FIA Central European Zone, it is our honor to express unwavering support to your candidacy for a second term as FIA President.

Your first term was marked by numerous achievements and significant advancements in the world of motorsport. Your strategic vision and steadfast leadership as FIA President have elevated the sport globally, and your dedication has set a commendable standard for future endeavours.

Under your leadership, our region has experienced remarkable growth and development. Your initiatives have fostered increased participation, provided essential resources, and nurtured emerging talents within the Central European Zone. Your commitment has significantly strengthened our local motorsport community, and for that, we are deeply grateful.

Moreover, your focus on road safety and sustainable mobility continues to resonate with our objectives. Your holistic approach, combining competitiveness with social responsibility, underscores the values that we hold dear in our region.
